

A Man and His Work

October 27, 2004

“ There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink and make himself enjoy good in his labor. Even this, I have seen, is from the hand of God.” Ecclesiastes 2:24

SUMMARY:

We as Christians work hard at being ambassadors for Christ in all aspects of our life. Work is a place where people usually see the real you. We must do a better job of allowing the spirit man to rule instead of the fleshly man. (Galatians 5:16-17) If we truly believe what the Word of God declares then we must believe that he will bless us and our work.

NOTES:

DISCUSSION POINTS:

Introductory Question: If you are a Christian, do the people you work with know you are a Christian?

Discussion:

- What type of person are you at work?
- What can you do to help that perception?
- How can you be more like Christ at work?

APPLICATION:

What can I do “TODAY” to be more like Christ at work?

Name “3”
