

Betrayal

1-18-06

DISCUSSION POINTS:

Introductory Question:

1. How do you handle Betrayal?
2. Do you respond the same way Joseph did?
3. Do you have confidence that God is in control of every situation in your life?
4. At a time of betrayal and defeat how can we trust God's word and his plan for our life?

APPLICATION:

Proverbs 16:9 (NIV) In his heart a man plans his course, but the Lord determines his steps.

Jesus was betrayed by a kiss in the garden of Gethsemane (Luke 22:48).

How have you betrayed your fellow brothers?

What can we do to prohibit this from happening in our lives????

ON YOUR OWN...

Genesis chapter 37

Matthew 22:10

Matthew 26:21

Romans 16:16

1 Cor 16:20

Psalm 119: 9-11,89,90,103,105,165

Jeremiah 17:15

Matthew 5:20

SUMMARY:

We all experience Betrayal in our lives one time or another.

Principle # 5: We find the courage and personal strength to remain faithful to our beliefs because of positive mentoring relationships in our life. As a child, or as an adult, mentoring relationships are necessary to change our heart and mold our character into a vessel that God can use.

James 1:3 KNOWING that the testing of your faith produces endurance.

God knows what you need in your life. Our part is to have the assurance that it all works to our good. Romans 8:28
