

The Shaping of a Man
"Tough Times Lead to God's Glory"
Dr. Charles K. Henry, Sr.
Evansville, Indiana

May 17, 2006

"The steps of a righteous man are ordered by the Lord...."
Psalms 37:23

SUMMARY:

God uses many people and events to shape our lives for service to HIM and our fellowman. Our responsibility is to be open and sensitive to all that God is doing as He (and He alone) knows what is in our ultimate best interest.

NOTES:

DISCUSSION POINTS:

Introductory Question: What challenges have you overcome to see God prepare you for service to Him?

Questions:

- What are some obstacles Satan places in our paths to try to side tract God's plans for our lives?
- Can you recall an incident in your life that you thought was meaningless which God used later to enrich your life?
- What are some excuses we give to God for not following His will in our lives?

APPLICATION: