SUMMARY:

Luke 15: 25-32

25. Now his older son was in the field, and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing 26. And he summoned one of the servants and began inquiring what these things might be. 27. And he said to him, Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and sound. 28. but he became angry and was not willing to go in; and his father came out and began entreating him. 29. But he answered and said to his father, Look! For so many years I have been serving you, and I have never neglected a command of yours; and yet you have never given me a kid, that I might be merry with my friends; 30. But when this son your yours came, who has devoured your wealth with harlots, you killed the fattened calf for him. 31. and he said to him, My child, you have always been with me, and all that is mine is yours. 32. But we had to be merry and rejoice, for this brother of yours was dead and has begun to live and was lost and has been found.
