

“THE FOOT-WASHING JESUS”

John 13:1 – 17,34 - 35

March 28, 2007
Kevin Butcher

SUMMARY:

1. Jesus washes feet [1-11]
2. Jesus is our Master [12-14]
3. We follow our Master by washing the feet of others in his name [15-17]
4. Loving ALL the “one anothers” by washing their feet, is THE sign to the world that Jesus is the Christ and that we follow Him [34-35]

NOTES:

DISCUSSION POINTS:

Questions:

1. Do you claim to follow Jesus as your Master?
2. Would people who know you describe you as a foot washer – or one who lives to have his own feet washed?
3. Whose feet do you tend to avoid washing – and why?
4. What changes would it take – in you – to turn your heart toward washing feet as the goal of your life?:

APPLICATIONS:

QUOTES THAT, IF APPLIED TO LIFE, COULD CHANGE THE WORLD:

“Christianity has not been tried and found wanting; it has been found too difficult and left untried.” – G.K. Chesterton

“When Christ calls a man, He bids him come and die.”
- Dietrich Bonhoeffer

I’ll get there, if I leave everything but my bones behind...And I’ll carry Mr. Frodo up myself, it if breaks my back and heart.”
- Samwise Gamgee, “Lord of the Rings”

“Give up your good Christian life and follow Christ.”
- Garrison Keillor

ON YOUR OWN...

- Take time to meditate on and internalize the truths found in John 13: 1–17, 34 - 35
