

Today's Man: Applying God's Word

December 12, 2007

We welcome Bob Shields as he speaks at HUDDLE today. Bob is employed by Delphi Electronics.

NOTES:

DISCUSSION POINTS:

Introductory Question: Why is it that men seem to be more non-communicative with other men on personal health issues?

Discussion: Share briefly what you heard to be the main emphasis of Bob's sharing today.

What one idea would you like to implement in your life?

Share a prayer request you have as the new year begins, then as a group pray for one another.

APPLICATION:

Write down one thing you plan to do different beginning now to become a better person and a dedicated follower of Jesus Christ.

ON YOUR OWN...

This is the last week of HUDDLE in 2007. We have experienced God's blessings in many ways. May you enjoy the Christmas celebration of our Savior's birth and recommit yourself to be a messenger of the good news about Jesus Christ.

The next gathering of HUDDLE will be on Wednesday, Jan. 9, 2008. We look forward to continuing our series from the Book of proverbs. You are encouraged to read Proverbs Chapter 13 in preparation for that gathering.

Check out KokomoHUDDLE.org for messages from 2007 and previous years.
