

No Harm, No Foul

Today's man playing to win, not to get even !

February 13, 2008

Tim Knowland

Proverbs 17: 13 "If a man pays back evil for good, evil will never leave his house."

SUMMARY:

Seek out the friends in your life that will help keep you accountable, and challenge you to become a better man of God.

Proverbs 17:17 "A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity. "

Don't allow yourself to be influenced by those whom will lead you away from Christ. Surround your self with " REAL FRIENDS" that want to help you not destroy you.

Engage yourself deep into the game and see how God's Love will bless you and lead you in your daily walk.

NOTES:

DISCUSSION POINTS:

Introductory Question: How has a foul separated you from someone?

Discussion:

- Where has your Faith helped you in getting through a difficult situation?
- What have you done to seek forgiveness ?
- What can you do to avoid being drawn into the game of getting even?

APPLICATION:

How you can apply today's message to your daily playbook!

1. Respect _____
2. Respect _____
3. Respect _____

ON YOUR OWN...

Please read the following:

First Corinthians 9:24-27 tells us that discipline is the key to winning.

Hebrews 12:1-2, we are encouraged to lay aside anything that might hinder our spiritual advancement and to stay focused on Christ.

Philippians 3:12-13, the apostle Paul said, 'I press on,...forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead.'

Read Proverbs 18 for next Wednesday.
