

Right Word at the Right Time

April 16, 2008

Ray Houser

A word aptly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

Like an earring of gold or an ornament of fine gold is a wise man's rebuke to a listening ear. Proverbs 25:11-12 \(NIV\)

NOTES:

DISCUSSION POINTS:

Introductory Question: What is the hardest part of saying the right word at the right time?

Discussion: Who do you know that is good at saying the right thing at the right time? What does he do right?

How can someone get better at saying the right thing? What habits could they stop or start that would help them say things that are "apples of gold"?

APPLICATION:

Who needs the right words from you right now?

What do they need to hear from you?

What needs to happen for you to be able to say them?

When are you going to say them?

How is your word filter?

What do you need to filter out better?
