

A Heart That Loves Your Wife

Bob Gray

February 24, 2010

Ephesians 5:25 – Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her.

SUMMARY:

As we summarize this subject we must be an example of a sacrificial husband. As we look to Christ's example he showed us the ultimate sacrifice even to the point of death. As we begin our table discussion this week please listen to the Holy Spirit as he opens the door for us to be Jesus' love as the perfect example of love demonstrated.

NOTES:

Applications:

1. Christ's love is a sacrificial love....
Jesus' sacrifice is the perfect example of what love _____.
2. Christ's love is a purifying love....
Jesus' love is the perfect example of what love _____.
3. Christ love is a nurturing love....
Jesus' love is the perfect example of what love _____.
4. Christ's love is an enduring love
Jesus' love is the perfect example of love's _____.
5. Christ's love is an active love....
Jesus' love is the perfect example of love _____.

Discussion Points:

1. Do you show love to your wife in a pure and sacrificial manner? Why? Why Not?
2. What are some actions we can begin to take to communicate our love to our wives?
3. How can we show our love to our wife in the same manner that Christ showed his love to the church.
4. How can we do a better job of being a friend to those enduring rejection?

ON YOUR OWN...

A Man After God's Own Heart...chapter # 6

Ephesians 5: 22-33

1 Corinthians 6: 9 – 12

1 Corinthians 7: 10 - 24

