

A Man After God's Own Heart Part One: The Pursuit of God

January 6, 2010

Jon Tice

"But the king [David] said to Araunah, "No, but I will buy it from you for a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God that cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver." 2 Samuel 24:24

SUMMARY:

As suggested by the Teaching Team & Huddle Board the 2nd HUDDLE SESSION is based on the book by Jim George, A Man after God's Own Heart. This will continue our study of David with a more personal application. Books will be available for purchase that we follow along with each weeks theme.

Acceptance with God is rooted in God's pursuit of us. It was God who chose David because God said of him, David was a "man after God's own heart." Our acceptance with God is based on God, yet our growth and development to become the men God desires us to be is based upon our individual and collective pursuit of God. May we lock arms together in this GREATEST of pursuits.

NOTES:

WHEN PURSUING GOD this foundational principle remains

GREAT _____ = GREAT _____

DISCUSSION POINTS:

What pursuit in life so far has received my BEST energy?

How much has that pursuit cost (time, energy, money, relationships)?

How does a person pursue God?

What do I think is the cost of this pursuit?

What is the reward?

APPLICATION:

Will the great pursuit of God mark my life in 2010?

What will that look like on a daily and weekly basis?

Make a written commitment to God and yourself and place it in your Bible with the heading – My PURSUIT for 2010!

Become the MAN God created you to BE!
