

The Marks of a Man from Prison to Paradise

February 17, 2010

Matthew 25:34 – 40 then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. 35: For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me. 36: I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me. 37: Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? 38: And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? 39: And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you? 40: And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.'"

NOTES:

DISCUSSION POINTS:

1. Intro question: Have you allowed your testimony to impact the lives of others?
If so who?
If not, what's holding you back?
 - a. What is a testimony that you would love to share?
 - b. How do you view men and women who change their lives (while incarcerated) into becoming a total Christian?
 - c. What more can we do to demonstrate Christ to those who live for Christ that are in prison and when they are released back to society?
 - d. What does Revelation 12:11 mean to you? Explain.

Applications:

Revelations 12:11 And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death.
